From the Heart by Fr. Jason Kern

This past week in the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy on Friday was the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This is the Feast on which I was ordained, it is the name of the Seminary in Detroit which I attended and it is under the Sacred Heart of Jesus that I have consecrated my entire priesthood and time as the pastor of our Tri-Parish. I love the Heart of Jesus. Please pray for me and for all priests to have hearts like the Heart of Jesus. Please especially pray for priests who are struggling or carrying a heavy burden especially in these trying times in the Church in Minnesota.

Sunday Bible Reflections with Dr. Scott Hahn

Jesus in today's Gospel meets a funeral procession coming out of the gates of the town of Nain. Unlike when he raised Jairus' daughter (Mark 5) or Lazarus (John 11), no one requests his assistance. Moved by compassion for the widow who had lost her only son, Jesus steps forward and, laying his hand on the bier, commands him to arise.

The onlookers were reminded of the story of Elijah in the first reading who raised the dead child of the widow of Zarephath and "gave him [back] to his mother." They proclaimed that "a great prophet has arisen in our midst."

Jesus of course is more than a prophet; he is the ruler over life and death. In the Mosaic law, contact with a dead body renders an Israelite unclean for a week (Numbers 19:11-19). Jesus' touch and word reverses that; instead of being defiled by contact with death, he gave life.

Like the physical healings that he performed, Jesus' raising people from the dead is a sign of the Messiah's arrival (Luke 7:22). But it is more than that; these healings are visible signs of the awakening and liberating of men from the spiritual death caused by sin (see Mark 2:1-12).

The Church Fathers return to this theme again and again. St. Ambrose writes, "the widow signifies Mother Church, weeping for those who are dead in sin and carried beyond the safety of her gates. The multitudes looking on will praise the Lord when sinners rise again from death and are restored to their mother."

When we are dead in sin, it is the outstretched hand and the words of Christ spoken by his priest that raise us from spiritual death and restore us to the arms of our mother, the Church. With the Psalmist, then, we can sing "I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. You brought me up from the nether world; you preserved me from those going down into the pit."

Jesus loves us so much. Let His love fill your marriage with new life. The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends are Sep 30-Oct 2, 2016 in Mankato, MN and Feb 17-19, 2017 in Windom, MN. Early registration is highly recommended. For more information visit our website at: southmnwwme.org or contact John & Mary Beth at applications@southmnwwme.org or 507-838-8178.
