From the Heart by Fr. Jason Kern

Today's Feast of Christ the King has significant importance. The phrase "Kingdom of God" occurs 122 times in the New Testament. 90 of those times it is said by the mouth of Jesus Himself. When we call Jesus the King then and with all His references to the Kingdom of God what does this feast day recognize and represent?

When Jesus talks about the Kingdom of God we can say what He means is: God's presence. The Kingdom of God is both among us and Jesus says the Kingdom of God is like... in a future sense. So, Jesus is saying in His being present the Kingdom of God is among us. Jesus ushers in the Kingdom of God with His very presence. He is God and Man and has come among us. In this way the Kingdom of God is not a geographical territory but is truly present when we pray, "thy Kingdom Come" in the Our Father we are inviting God's presence to enter more fully into the world and for the fullness of His Kingdom to come at the end of time. So in this sense the Kingdom of God is present in each of us when we allow God's presence to enter our hearts and when we receive Jesus in Holy Communion. Finally the Kingdom of God is present in the Church who is the keeper of the presence of Jesus. Jesus is present in all times in His Church and as the head of the Church He is our King. He is ruler and mighty God leading His people to the Sovereign Kingdom of Heaven. The kingdoms of this world will pass away and the only Kingdom that will remain is that of the Church triumphant over every land and nation. The Eternal Kingdom where all will bow their knee at the Name of Jesus. Jesus, King of our Hearts and King of the Church, reign in us!

Next week we will begin the season of Advent. It amazes me that the countdown to Christmas is on. I am striving again this year to not think so much of a countdown to Christmas as I want to think of a preparation for the Lord's presence in my heart. What are the areas in my life where I do not welcome the God-Man? Where do I keep myself closed off or neutral to His presence? How could I make ready the way of the Lord in my own life?

This Advent we will again have Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Sundays of Advent from 10am-10pm at St. Teresa Church in Mapleton. Will you consider cutting a slice of your Sunday out to spend some time in quiet prayer? Jesus calls us to slow down and experience His loving presence. He invites us to spend time with Him and to bring our needs to Him. Adoration is also a time where we seek to worship Him for Who He is—God. We recognize His goodness and love and desire to honor Him not just for what He gives us but for Who He is in Himself—the all powerful God.

Come let us adore Him!

Let us prayerfully watch for the coming of the Lord

Beginning on November 27, the first Sunday of Advent, at 10 a.m. at St. Teresa and continuing on each of the Sundays in Advent, Fr Kern will expose the Eucharist on the Altar and begin the time of Adoration. Adoration will then continue until 10 p.m.

Since we can never leave Our Lord alone, there will be sign up sheets available to make sure someone will always be present from 10 a.m.-10 p.m. each Sunday. Please consider if you will be able to make that commitment and promise to Jesus to stay with Him awhile. Of course, anyone can come at any time during the day to pray without having signed up. Don't worry about how to spend this time in prayer—books and aids for prayer are available for your use.

Sunday, December 11 Gaudete Sunday
"Rejoice in the Lord always"

The third Sunday in Advent, Gaudete Sunday, provides us with encouragement to continue our spiritual preparation—especially prayer and fasting—for Christmas. It is a time of rejoicing as we near the coming of the Lord.

To celebrate this day we will have a special time of prayer and music and a short presentation by Fr. Kern during adoration, 11:00 a.m. to noon.

There is a breakfast at St. Teresa that day so you can stay

This weekend at each church there will be Advent wreaths, candles, and the Magnificat Advent Companion available to help with your advent preparations for the coming of Christ at Christmas.

Virtues are formed by prayer. Prayer preserves temperance. Prayer suppresses anger. Prayer prevents emotions of pride and envy. Prayer draws into the soul the Holy Spirit, and raises man to Heaven.
