“Father, we want to walk where Jesus walked, touch the soil and the rocks where the seed falls. We want to be warmed by the sun that warmed Him and cooled by the breezes that touched His face. We want to explore the sea where He walked and the river where He was baptized. We want to feel the presence of the Holy Spirit where He first sent it, and anguish at the spot where He gave Himself for us. Bless our family of faith as we choose to celebrate in your presence. Amen.”
