From the Heart - by Fr. Kern

For the first part of this week I was at our annual priest gathering with the bishop and all the priests of the Diocese of Winona. It was a wonderful few days with men I gladly call my brothers. We are very blessed to have such a generous group of men who gladly serve Christ and His Church in southern Minnesota. Though a few have failed in their sins against the Church, I was gathered with over 80 priests (many elderly or from other countries even) who inspire me and convict me to want to live a life more dependent on Jesus and more generously give of myself in service to you, His Church. Thanks for your support of the Church and encouragement through some difficult times. There will continue to be some shadowy days ahead with more negative news as cases continue to come to light over the period of time that the statute of limitations was removed in reporting child sexual abuse in Minnesota. These are not new cases but many from decades ago where little was understood about sexual abuse and situations were not handled properly once repeated abuse took place. Not only this, but difficult decisions will be made in what is best for the vitality of the diocese in regards to pastoral planning. No one likes discouraging news but I continue to be fully confident (and not blindly naive) in Jesus' plan for our Church. Having encountered the living God, I have confidence in whatever comes about in the Church will offer us a greater opportunity for renewal and rededication to His Most Sacred Heart. I hope you will continue to trust in that same grace offered to each of us no matter what circumstances we find ourselves in. Please know that I am always available to you should you want to dialogue through some of these issues or if you want to share your experience.

This Sunday we celebrate what has become an annual occasion hosted by St. Matthew's as our tri-parish harvest mass. Rural life in America has changed dramatically in recent years but the foundations of what makes life here so great remain. There is much reason to celebrate and give thanks for right here in our own backyard. Agriculture continues to be the backbone of America and offers a way of life that is dependent on hard work and commitment. From this it is often found a valuing of family life and caring communities. That is certainly what we have here in southern Blue Earth County as well as generous individuals who contribute to the good of society both through farming but also through continuing to build and form a community that is committed to solid values and caring for those in need. As we prepare for another harvest (even one that perhaps is not overly abundant in our area) we look to God from whom all good comes and return our hearts to Him as He has richly provided for us even more than in physical means but primarily in our spiritual needs. God is with us in our day, might we find ourselves with Him each day.

Monday, September 29, is the Feast of the Holy Archangels: Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael. This feast is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate our Catholic belief in angels. In the late 1800's, Pope Leo XIII had a dream in which he was inspired to write the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel and have all the faithful pray it after Mass. It is a powerful prayer for our times:

*St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and
snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen..*

At St. Teresa a new picture of St. Michael graces the Gathering Space. On his feast day, Monday, Father will bless this picture after Mass.

October is the month of the Holy Rosary. We will be praying the rosary before each Mass during the month. Please come to Mass 20 minutes early to pray this beautiful prayer to Our Lady while we meditate on the mysteries of Our Lord's life. If you would be able to help by leading the rosary one day, please contact the tri-parish office.
