From the Heart by Fr. Jason Kern

It is with deep gratitude to God and to all of you that I embark on my final two weekends in our Tri-Parish. This weekend I will celebrate my final weekend Mass at St. Joseph Church in Good Thunder and the following weekend the same with St. Matthew and St. Teresa. While I am confident in the future not only for myself, but for the faith of the people in these communities, good-byes are always difficult. Rather than dwelling on the difficulty that comes with transition, I hope you can join me in giving thanks to God and placing our hope and confidence in His grace to come. Please know of my prayers for all of you and for your continued growth in relationship to God and the Holy Catholic Church. Please always feel free to send me correspondence or at least Christmas cards! I don't send them in return, but I do appreciate keeping in touch!

My new address will be:
IHM Seminary
750 Terrace Heights
Winona, MN 55987

This weekend the Church celebrates Corpus Christi or The Body and Blood of Christ as a feast day to give glory to Jesus who has left us the Memorial of His Death and His Real Presence in the gift of the Holy Eucharist. How blessed are we as Catholics? How glorious it is to partake of the mystery of the Eucharist! Feed on Him, Receive Him into your souls, be nourished by God! This is such a supreme gift—might I never take it for granted or approach Him casually. Might I never miss an opportunity to receive Him faithfully. Perhaps we can ask the question of ourselves, do I approach the Eucharist with love and reverence? Do I really have faith in the True Presence to bring spiritual nourishment, healing, and grace? Do I have a heart of gratitude upon receiving the Most Blessed Sacrament of the altar? Do I make a point to visit the Blessed Sacrament in the Church and spend some time of quiet prayer before His Presence?

A prayer said during Eucharistic Adoration goes as follows: “May the heart of Jesus, in the Most Blessed Sacrament, be praised, adored, and loved with grateful affection, at every moment, in all the tabernacles of the world, even to the end of time. Amen.” This prayer recognizes the Eucharist as the Heart of Jesus—His Sacred Heart offered for us and given to us.

This Friday the Universal Church celebrates the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. A great devotion to bring to our homes. On Friday of this week two men will be ordained transitional deacons at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart in Winona. These two men, Brian Mulligan and Thé Hoang will be ordained priests next summer. Brian is originally from Rochester and Thé is from Owatonna (my home parish—St. Joseph). Please pray for them and all seminarians.

Mass Times for Travel

Summer is upon us and that usually means more travel. As you are away from home on the weekends this summer, don't leave your faith back home. There is a convenient way to find Catholic Churches and Mass times wherever you travel: go to masstimes.org and type in a city to find current churches and Mass times, or click to download their app to itunes.

We are in Ordinary Time...

Because the term ordinary in English most often means something that's not special or distinctive, many people think that Ordinary Time refers to parts of the calendar of the Catholic Church that are unimportant. Even though the season of Ordinary Time makes up most of the liturgical year in the Catholic Church, the fact that Ordinary Time refers to those periods that fall outside of the major liturgical seasons reinforces this impression.

Yet Ordinary Time is far from unimportant or uninteresting. WHY IS ORDINARY TIME CALLED ORDINARY?

Ordinary Time is called "ordinary" not because it is common but simply because the weeks of Ordinary Time are numbered. The Latin word ordinalis, which refers to numbers in a series, stems from the Latin word ordo, from which we get the English word order. Thus, the numbered weeks of Ordinary Time in fact represent the ordered life of the Church—the period in which we live our lives neither in feasting (as in the Christmas and Easter seasons) or in more severe penance (as in Advent and Lent), but in watchfulness and expectation of the Second Coming of Christ.

...for Catholics, Ordinary Time is the part of the year in which Christ, the Lamb of God, walks among us and transforms our lives. There's nothing "ordinary" about that!

Women's Book Club will meet Thursday, June 22 at 6 p.m. at St. Teresa Church. We will have a potluck dinner, discuss the book All the Light We Cannot See, enjoy fellowship, and discuss plans for next year. All women of the tri-parish are welcome!

During the winter/spring months over 50 parishioners attended an 8 week study on Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible. The response was overwhelmingly positive. We would like to offer the opportunity to attend these sessions this summer for anyone who could not fit it in their schedule earlier. If you are interested in unlocking the mystery of the Bible, please contact the tri-parish office. Dates, time and location will be determined by those who are interested in attending.

The longer, more detailed version of Jeff Cavins' Bible Study will be offered next year. Details will be available at a later date.

Thank you to everyone who helped with Bingo at Town and Country Days either with set up, working a shift, or coming to play! It was a successful event with $ 453 raised and a lot of fun had! We will plan to sponsor it again next year so plan now to help out.

Thank You!

An Open House Baby Girl Shower for Marcie and Paul Larson will be hosted on June 25, 1-3 p.m., at the Lembke Building, Minnesota Lake. They are registered at Target and Amazon.

The soul of the one who loves God always swims with joy, always keeps holiday, and is always in a mood for singing.

Sunday Bible Reflections with Dr. Scott

The Eucharist is given to us as a challenge and a promise. That's how Jesus presents it in today's Gospel.

He doesn't make it easy for those who hear Him. They are repulsed and offended at His words. Even when they begin to quarrel, He insists on describing the eating and drinking of His flesh and blood in starkly literal terms.

Four times in today's reading, Jesus uses a Greek word—trogein—that refers to a crude kind of eating, almost a gnawing or chewing (see John 6:54,56,57,58).

He is testing their faith in His Word, as today's First Reading describes God testing Israel in the desert.

The heavenly manna was not given to satisfy the Israelites' hunger, as Moses explains. It was given to show them that man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.

In today's Psalm, too, we see a connection between God's Word and the bread of life. We sing of God filling us with "finest wheat" and proclaiming his Word to the world.

In Jesus, "the living Father" has given us His Word come down from heaven, made flesh for the life of the world.

Yet as the Israelites grumbled in the desert, many in today's Gospel cannot accept that Word. Even many of Jesus' own followers abandon Him after this discourse (see John 6:66). But His words are Spirit and life, the words of eternal life (see John 6:63,67).

In the Eucharist we are made one flesh with Christ. We have His life in us and have our life because of Him. This is what Paul means in today's Epistle when He calls the Eucharist a "participation" in Christ's body and blood. We become in this sacrament partakers of the divine nature (see 1 Peter 2:4).

This is the mystery of the faith that Jesus asks us believe. And He gives us His promise: that sharing in His flesh and blood that was raised from the dead, we too will be raised up on the last day.
