From the Heart by Fr. Jason Kern

On this final Sunday, I give thanks to God for every gift and blessing. I rejoice in gratitude for my time serving here as your parish priest. I am filled with emotion of having to say goodbye but I am fully confident in God and His plan. On this final weekend of Masses, I give heartfelt thanks to each of you that have shown me so much love and support. Thank you for letting me be a part of your lives in some of the most intimate moments whether rejoicing or sorrowing. I reverence the time we had together with you and your families and will not forget all that God has done for us.

Please keep me in your prayers and all priests who are moving this weekend in your prayers. My new address will be:

IHM Seminary
750 Terrace Heights
Winona, MN 55987

My personal email is frkern.jason@gmail.com and I am sure I will have a Diocese of Winona email account for vocations work soon.

Below is a prayer for priests that you might consider praying for me and for Fr. Vogel as he begins his new work here as your pastor. He generously said yes to going to Catholic Heart Work Camp this week (June 25-30) with the youth of our parish. Prayers remain with you and I will always remain grateful for our time together.

Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, our great High Priest,

Hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priest,
Father [N].

Give him a deep faith, a bright and firm hope, and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of his priestly life.

In his loneliness, comfort him.

In his sorrows, strengthen him.

In his frustrations, point out to him that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show him that he is needed by the Church, he is needed by souls, he is needed for the work of redemption.

O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your son who is close to you because of his priestly ordination, and because of the power which he has received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs him so much.

Be his comfort, be his joy, be his strength, and especially help him to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy. Amen.

This week, our second collection will be for Peter's Pence, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

On June 29 the Church celebrates the feast day of Sts. Peter and Paul, and as early as 258 AD, there is evidence of an already-lengthy tradition that both St. Peter and St. Paul were celebrated on the same day.

In a sermon in the year 395, St. Augustine of Hippo said of Saints Peter and Paul:

"Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith." <http://bustedhalo.com/ministry-resources/summer-school-2016-june-29>

We are in Ordinary Time...

Because the term ordinary in English most often means something that's not special or distinctive, many people think that Ordinary Time refers to parts of the calendar of the Catholic Church that are unimportant. Even though the season of Ordinary Time makes up most of the liturgical year in the Catholic Church, the fact that Ordinary Time refers to those periods that fall outside of the major liturgical seasons reinforces this impression.

Yet Ordinary Time is far from unimportant or uninteresting. WHY IS ORDINARY TIME CALLED ORDINARY?

Ordinary Time is called "ordinary" not because it is common but simply because the weeks of Ordinary Time are numbered. The Latin word ordinalis, which refers to numbers in a series, stems from the Latin word ordo, from which we get the English word order. Thus, the numbered weeks of Ordinary Time in fact represent the ordered life of the Church—the period in which we live our lives neither in feasting (as in the Christmas and Easter seasons) or in more severe penance (as in Advent and Lent), but in watchfulness and expectation of the Second Coming of Christ.

...for Catholics, Ordinary Time is the part of the year in which Christ, the Lamb of God, walks among us and transforms our lives. There's nothing "ordinary" about that!

During the winter/spring months over 50 parishioners attended an 8 week study on Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible. The response was overwhelmingly positive. We would like to offer the opportunity to attend these sessions this summer for anyone who could not fit it in their schedule earlier. If you are interested in unlocking the mystery of the Bible, please contact the tri-parish office. Dates, time and location will be determined by those who are interested in attending.

The longer, more detailed version of Jeff Cavins' Bible Study will be offered next year. Details will be available at a later date.

An Open House Baby Girl Shower for Marcie and Paul Larson will be hosted on June 25, 1-3 p.m., at the Lembke Building, Minnesota Lake. They are registered at Target and Amazon.

Sunday Bible Reflections with Dr. Scott

Our commitment to Christ will be put to the test.

We will hear whispered warnings and denunciations, as Jeremiah does in today's First Reading. Even so-called friends will try to trap and trip us up.

For His sake we will bear insults and be made outcasts—even in our own homes, we hear in today's Psalm.

As Jeremiah tells us, we must expect that God will challenge our faith in Him, and probe our minds and hearts, to test the depths of our love.

"Do not be afraid," Jesus assures us three times in today's Gospel. Though He may permit us to suffer for our faith, our Father will never forget or abandon us. As Jesus assures us today, everything unfolds in His Providence, under His watchful gaze—even the falling of the tiniest sparrow to the ground. Each one of us is precious to Him.

Steadfast in this faith, we must resist the tactics of Satan. He is the enemy who seeks the ruin of our soul in Gehenna, or hell.

We are to seek God, as the Psalmist says. Zeal for the Lord's house, for the heavenly kingdom of the Father, should consume us, as it consumed Jesus (see Jn 2:17). As Jesus bore the insults of those who blasphemed God, so should we (see Rm 15:3).

By the gracious gift of himself, Jesus bore the transgressions of the world, Paul tells us in today's Epistle. In rising from the dead, He has shown us that God rescues the life of the poor, that He does not spurn His own when they are in distress. In His great mercy, He will turn toward us, as well. He will deliver us from the power of the wicked.

That is why we proclaim His name from the housetops, as Jesus tells us. That is why we sing praise and offer thanksgiving in every Eucharist. We are confident in Jesus' promise—that we who declare our faith in Him before others will be remembered before our heavenly Father.
