Hello,

I hope you have had a great week. I had an awesome week at Camp Summit. The faith is alive and well. The junior high campers were amazing. I heard over and over again how much they enjoyed Mass and Eucharistic Adoration. Yes, you heard that right. They also enjoyed the high ropes course, the archery, the rock climbing, and other such activities. These kids, in the end, even if they don't know it before hand, just want Jesus. That's all all of us ever want. I wish you could have been there. The energy and excitement these kids had for Jesus was awesome.

Things are about to get crazy. Minnesota State University students arrive this week. Also, official sports practice for the fall sports begins Monday. Let the fun begin.

This weekend we hear about Jesus walking on water. This was actually the theme for Camp Summit this year: Walk on Water. Jesus invites Peter out of the boat. Jesus invites us out of the boat. Jesus invites us out of our comfort zone. Being a Christian is not about being comfortable; it is about being bold. How is Jesus inviting us to do new bold things for the Kingdom of God?

Maybe one thing we are doing as a cluster to get out of our comfort zone is to implement Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. If we are going to pull this off, we need help. Please contact Neil Majeski or Sarah Caven. Again Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a Montessori way of teaching the faith to kids through hands on activities. I'm really excited to see 3 year olds learn and know the Mass better, Bible stories, and other aspects of our Catholic Christian faith.

May God bless and keep you,
Father Vogel

SAVE THE DATE - Bishop John Quinn and Bishop Bernard Harrington invite you to join them in Detroit for the Beatification of Father Solanus Casey. The Diocese of Winona has organized a 3-night pilgrimage via deluxe motor coach bus to the Beatification Mass at Ford Field in Detroit, Michigan, November 17-20, 2017. Other highlights include the Fr. Solanus Casey Center, Sacred Heart Seminary, a tour of Detroit, and the Shrine of Christ's Passion. A full itinerary will be available soon on the diocesan web site, www.dow.org. For immediate questions, contact Ann Ringlien at aringlien@dow.org or at 507-858-1241.

Queenship of Blessed Virgin Mary Feast August 22

Pope Pius XII established this feast in 1954. But Mary's queenship has roots in Scripture. At the Annunciation, Gabriel announced that Mary's Son would receive the throne of David and rule forever. At the Visitation, Elizabeth calls Mary "mother of my Lord." As in all the mysteries of Mary's life, she is closely associated with Jesus: Her queenship is a share in Jesus' kingship. We can also recall that in the Old Testament the mother of the king has great influence in court.

In the fourth century St. Ephrem called Mary "Lady" and "Queen." Later Church fathers and doctors continued to use the title. Hymns of the 11th to 13th centuries address Mary as queen: "Hail, Holy Queen," "Hail, Queen of Heaven," "Queen of Heaven." The Dominican rosary and the Franciscan crown as well as numerous invocations in Mary's litany celebrate her queenship.

The feast is a logical follow-up to the Assumption, and is now celebrated on the octave day of that feast. In his 1954 encyclical To the Queen of Heaven, Pius XII points out that Mary deserves the title because she is Mother of God, because she is closely associated as the New Eve with Jesus' redemptive work, because of her preeminent perfection, and because of her intercessory power from: franciscanmedia.org/queenship-of-mary/

God, grant healing and peace to the sick of our communities who have requested our prayers:

Deanna Shanahan, Terry Hassing, Mary Breiter, Bill Barnard, Dorothy Lindemann, Don Landsteiner, Bill Fleming, If you or a member of your family would like our prayers, please call 524-3127 and ask to be put on this prayer list. Each name will remain on the list for eight weeks unless the office is notified to leave the name for a longer amount of time.

Faith Formation

The Tri-parish Youth Faith Formation program is looking for more adult volunteers who are excited about passing on the teachings of the Church to the younger generations for this upcoming faith formation year! We are still in need of:

- 5 catechists
- 3-4 classroom assistants
- 3-4 substitute catechists

If you feel called to offer your time and your talents and serve the Church in this way, please talk to either Father Vogel or the faith formation director, Julia Bressler! Julia can be reached at (320)-266-8397.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

This fall, we will be implementing a new program for all the 3 year olds in our parish. The program is called Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS). CGS is a program that recognizes the unique relationship between God and young children and strives to draw upon that relationship through hands-on, Montessori style learning. In CGS, the adult teacher assists children in the lessons while the Holy Spirit guides them.

CGS is in need of volunteers for wood working, hand work, crafting and sewing. We have several projects that need to be completed within the next month.

Please contact the following people if you are interested in helping with any of these projects.

- Wood Working - Neil Majeski, 507-327-3559
 - Crafting - Kim Kleven, 507-420-1866
 - Sewing or Hand Work - Karen Langworthy, 507-995-0988
 - Or contact the tri-parish office for any of the projects
- We are still in need of supplies for the Atrium. Please see the box with the list of supplies located in your parish entry. An updated list can also be found on the tri-parish website: sjsmst.org under the faith formation tab.

Sunday Bible Reflections with Dr. Scott Hahn

Most of us are the foreigners, the non-Israelites, about whom today's First Reading prophesies.

Coming to worship the God of Israel, we stand in the line of faith epitomized by the Canaanite woman in today's Gospel. Calling to Jesus as Lord and Son of David, this foreigner shows her great faith in God's covenant with Israel.

Jesus tests her faith three times. He refuses to answer her cry. Then, He tells her His mission is only to Israelites. Finally, he uses "dog," an epithet used to disparage non-Israelites (see Matthew 7:6). Yet she persists, believing that He alone offers salvation.

In this family drama, we see fulfilled Isaiah's prophecy and the promise we sing of in today's Psalm. In Jesus, God makes known among all the nations His way and His salvation (see John 14:6).

At the start of salvation history, God called Abraham (see Genesis 12:2). He chose his offspring, Israel, from all the nations on the face of the earth, to build His covenant kingdom (see Deuteronomy 7:6-8; Isaiah 41:8).

In God's plan, Abraham was to be the father of many nations (see Romans 4:16-17). Israel was to be the firstborn of a worldwide family of God, made up of all who believe what the Canaanite professes—that Jesus is Lord (see Exodus 4:22-23; Romans 5:13-24).

Jesus came first to restore the kingdom to Israel (see Acts 1:6; 13:46). But His ultimate mission was the reconciliation of the world, as Paul declares in today's Epistle.

In the Mass we join all peoples in doing Him homage. As Isaiah foretold, we come to His holy mountain, the heavenly Jerusalem, to offer sacrifice at His altar (see Hebrews 12:22-24,28). With the Canaanite, we take our place at the Master's table, to be fed as His children.
